

High Jinks

It seems to be writ in the stars that for fun—real honest-to-goodness FUN spelt in all caps and with a decorative border around it—the big event of fair week will be the main night to be spent on the streets again after Wednesday night from nine-thirty of the clock until the witching hour of midnight when churchyards dawn and graves give up their dead, only there won't be any dead ones to that bunch to give up.

Get it out of your head, please, that this party is going to be rough. On the contrary, quite the reverse. Those who have it in charge are folks who really know and their names constitute a guarantee that the affair will be of the sort that you will not want to miss. Informal—well yes, a trifle so, but absolutely and positively ladylike. Wyck Miller, who is making up this social morsel, gives his assurance to that effect, and Wyck is an authority on such matters.

The setting of the piece, so they say in the秘s, will be on South Third street from Central avenue to the after midway between Gold and Silver. No such things as rings will be used and each man has authority to stand still as he sees fit. The girls will be at home at 842 North Fourth street.

Both bride and groom are natives of Albuquerque, and their wedding invites two of the oldest and most prominent families of the city. Mrs. Neher is a daughter of the late Charles S. Myers and Mrs. Henrietta Myers, on North Fourth street, the color scheme of pink and white being carried out in the dining room decorations and a floral bell being suspended above the table. The popularity of both bride and groom was attested by the large number of beautiful presents at the Myers home. At 11 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Neher left on their honeymoon trip of several weeks duration, going first to Grand Canyon and afterwards to southern California points. Upon their return they will be at home at 842 North Fourth street.

Both bride and groom are natives of Albuquerque, and their wedding invites two of the oldest and most prominent families of the city. Mrs. Neher is a daughter of the late Charles S. Myers and Mrs. Henrietta Myers, and is one of the most popular and attractive young women in Albuquerque. Mr. Neher is a son of George K. Neher and is a prominent young business man with a wide circle of friends whose congratulations are being extended to him.

THE WOMAN'S CLUB.

The address of Mrs. Rupert P. Aspinwall of Santa Fe, president of the State Federation of Women's clubs, and that of Mrs. John W. Wilson, president of the local organization, which is reproduced elsewhere on this page, were the high lights of the regular meeting of the Woman's club last Friday.

Mr. Aspinwall, who is one of the most pleasing speakers in New Mexico, was a special guest of the club and her remarks were greatly enjoyed by the members present.

Meeting arrangements were rendered by Mrs. N. V. Bentling, Miss Michener, seamstress, Mrs. A. F. Morrisette, Mrs. George Everett, accompanist, and by Mrs. McTee. Owing to the illness of Mrs. Bullock the report of the annual convention was deferred to another date.

Of more than ordinary importance was the decision reached at the meeting to give a Holloween ball at the armory, for the purpose of raising funds with which to defray the debt of the organization. The affair promises to be one of the really enjoyable events of the season and it is expected that a substantial sum will be raised.

ESTATE STAR DANCE.

The ladies of the Order of the Eastern Star have planned a series of dancing parties to be given at the Masonic temple during the present season, and the first one will take place on September 22. Invitations have been extended by the young people of Belen, Deming, and other nearby towns, and quite number of visitors from out of town are expected to be present. All members of the Masonic order and their friends are invited and special attention will be paid to strangers in order that they may be made to feel at home in the city.
